A Message From The Sale Manager...

Since their sale a year ago the Tulleevin Herd has continued to grow stronger under the able management of Charles South, one of the owners, assisted by Bob House, herdsman. Dan O'Connor, the other half of the partnership, having moved to Tulleevin-East at Morristown, New Jersey.

You will be as impressed as I was with the very carefully selected bulls to be sold. All are sons of the great breeding bull and International Grand Champion, L F Fascination by the International Reserve Grand Champion, Carona Fascination x. His sons have done a remarkable job of siring firm fleshed, closely knit, well balanced, sound, early maturing cattle for their owners and have been declared great improvers.

Dan and Charles have succeeded in putting together an even better offering of females for their 1963 sale with the very special attraction that fifteen of them are bred to DUKE OF WESTDRUMS x, the imported polled bull on which all eyes are focused. You can focus attention on your herd by being among the first to own one of his calves.

You will like the cattle. You will enjoy another visit to Tulleevin.

Hello, Again . . .

We are happy that the steady progress of our Polled Shorthorn operation makes it possible for us to continue our Annual Sale and are pleased to send you this catalogue of our attractive 1963 offering.

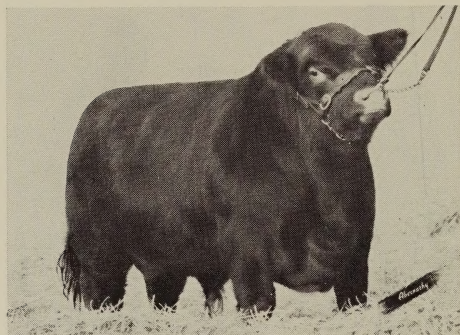

The most exciting event at Tulleevin since our last sale was the arrival of DUKE OF WESTDRUMS x, the first Polled Shorthorn bull to be imported into the United States from Scotland and the answer to our extensive search for an outcross bull to be used in our herd and particularly on our many fine daughters of L F Fascination x. All of us are anxiously awaiting the arrival of his first calf, and we expect to have several by sale time.

Fourteen heifers and a cow selling in this sale carry the service of DUKE OF WESTDRUMS x. You will want to be among the first to own one of his offspring. They promise to be the most talked about calves of the year.

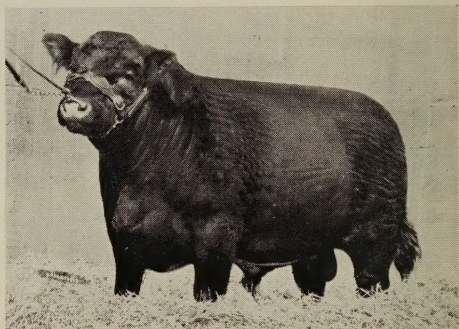

The cattle will be on display for your inspection on Sunday, March 31.

Everyone at Tulleevin will be on hand to welcome you sale day, and we hope that you will drop in on Sunday to look over the cattle, visit and enjoy a buffet supper with us.

The Next Ten Cows Selling...

The owners of Tulleevin Farms believe that every well balanced sale offering should contain a few cows, bred or with calves at foot, for the benefit of those buyers who seek quick dividends.

This year the dividends should be especially good, since these cows are the kind that would ordinarily never leave the farm. They must go because the consolidation of the herd formerly kept at Dan O'Connor's Mason, Ohio farm with the herd at Franklin has taxed our capacity.

Even after rigorous culling, we were left with ten good cows for which we had no room. You can be the gainer. These cows are sound and reliable in every way, with the best of pedigrees. A real buy!
